Language: Hindi. 7/10.16th Century: In 1535, two years after Pope Paul III planned the united Catholic Church in the West, he revealed a new plan to complete the building of the kingdom of God. Pope Paul III commissioned the artist Tommaso Masaccio, best known as the inventor of perspective, to paint a mural at the center of the Church of Santa Maria del Carmine in Florence. The work shows Christ on the Cross surrounded by the twelve Apostles. On the right, a long column supports a shallow dome, the design for which was taken from the Pantheon. Masaccio chose to paint the figure of Christ with the archetypal representation of wisdom. His head is a replica of the sculpture by Praxiteles in the Temple of Apollo at Delphi. He is clad in a garment of royal blue and gold, symbolizing the authority of the king. He has a look of serene authority on his face, d0c515b9f4
